

People's Tribunal into the Human Rights Impacts of Unconventional Gas

Saturday 25th and Sunday 26th February 2017

Banco Court, 415 George Street, Brisbane

Gasfields and Condamine River. Photo - google earth

The Western Downs and Wider Unconventional Gas Group (WDWUGG) are working with a range of groups, including the Australian Earth Laws Alliance, to hold a People's Tribunal into the Human Rights Impacts of Unconventional Gas.

The WDWUGG consists of businesses, not for profits and individuals who have come together with a mandate to form a working committee of representatives to hold the Tribunal.

The Tribunal is being held on Saturday 25th and Sunday 26th of February 2017, at the Banco Court in Brisbane. Tribunal Judges will include leaders from the legal profession and wider community.

Witness accounts, evidence and findings from the Tribunal will be included in plenary hearings of the International Tribunal into Human Right Impacts of Fracking held in the US and UK in March 2017. The accounts, evidence and findings will also be made available to other peak bodies in order to inform and influence policy and community dialogue in Australia and overseas.

Those involved in the Tribunal to date include:

- Australian Earth Laws Alliance
- Social Justice Commission Toowoomba
- Sisters of Mercy
- Landholders ASCERT
- Lock the Gate Alliance
- Knitting Nannas Against Gas - Western Downs
- Uniting Church Leichardt Patrol
- Western Downs Alliance Inc
- Planning 4 Sustainable Development

Groups and individuals who wish to be involved with the Tribunal can email: hrtibunal@gmail.com. Please visit our facebook page for more information: <https://www.facebook.com/HRTribunal/>

HOW TO ATTEND

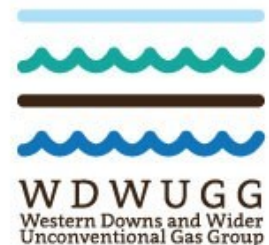

The Tribunal will be open to the public. Details about how to book your place will be available on our facebook page soon

FURTHER INFORMATION

FACEBOOK—

<https://www.facebook.com/HRTribunal/>

EMAIL - hrtibunal@gmail.com

australian earth laws alliance