The Australian Peoples' Tribunal for Community and Nature's Rights (APT) acknowledges that the sovereignty of the First Nations People of the continent now known as Australia was never ceded by treaty nor in any other way.

The APT acknowledges and respects First Nations Peoples' laws and ecologically sustainable custodianship of Australia over tens of thousands of years through land and sea management practices that continue today.

SPECIAL ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Australian Peoples' Tribunal for Community and Nature's Rights acknowledge and thank the following people:

- Barkandji First Nations Peoples for welcoming us to their Country and enabling us to speak with members of their communities
- All the individuals and community members along the Darling River who attended a public hearing, spoke privately or on video, hosted us and made us feel welcome in their communities
- Mark Merritt and Susie Peak for their commitment in bringing the APT to the communities of the Darling River
- The APT Research and Support Team – James Lee, Maggie Turnbull, Meaghan Burkett, Gale Duell
- Aeon Vision Film & Earthling Studios who produced the video testimonies – Ryan Jasper, Clare Lewis, Monique Upton, Eduard Figueres, Tamia Cotacachi
- The Australian Earth Laws Alliance, including the Board of Directors, for their unwavering support
- Everyone who donated to our GiveNow crowd funding cause, and who helped fund the APT's two-week Inquiry along the Darling River
